

Nightly Examination of Conscience

- What are you doing throughout the day? Are you praying enough?
- Did you pray reverently, sincerely, and long enough this day?
- Throughout the day, did you make sacrifices in reparation for your sins and those of others?
- Were you at peace with God, within yourself, and with others, and did you draw down to earth heavenly peace through your prayers and actions?
- Did I remain faithful to God and trust in His presence and promises?
- Did I adore God in prayer and offer Him every activity throughout the day?
- Did my thoughts, words, and actions throughout the day keep me advancing toward my true home in Heaven and encourage others to join me in this journey?
- Did I love and pray for my enemies and for those who offend God and my loved ones through ignorance, weakness, or malice?
- Did I practice devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus?
- What “crosses” did God offer me this day? Did I not only accept but also even embrace them to console Christ’s Sacred Heart?
- Did my heart burn with the fire of Christ’s Sacred Heart in love for God and for neighbor? What did I allow to snuff out this fire?
- Did any “wounds” inflicted upon me today increase grace and mercy in me and pour forth to others, especially those who hurt me?

- Did I radiate Christ's love to others through my thoughts, words, and deeds?
- How have my thoughts, words, and deeds shown God, my neighbor, and myself that the Eucharist is truly the source, summit, and center of my life?
- How have I responded to the most recent Holy Mass I attended?
- Am I examining my conscience and confessing my sins?
- Am I giving glory and thanks to God for His mercy?
- Am I reflecting on the Gospel message and living in accord with it?
- Am I recalling and proclaiming Christ's passion, death, and resurrection?
- Am I living in communion with Christ and witnessing to this communion with Christ in my ordinary activities and current relationships?
- What am I doing to prepare carefully to participate with greater reverence and devotion in the next Holy Mass I will attend?
- Did I offer each part of my day to God through the Eucharist as a spiritual sacrifice pleasing to our Father?
- Have I worked to equip myself as a prophet in Christ and have I proclaimed Him in my words and deeds throughout the day?
- Have I permitted Christ the King to conquer sin in me and have I worked to bring holiness and morality into all my relationships and activities?

- When I arose this morning, was I aware of God and did I sincerely offer my day to Him? Did I entrust my greatest joys and fears to Him, inviting Him to join me in what I find enjoyable and to help me in what I find difficult or even dreadful?
- Did I practice being aware of the Presence of God in each activity of the day? In what places and during what activities do I tend to ignore Him or to fear that He is not available?
- When I fell in weakness or sin during the day, did I turn to God in my mind and heart, tell Him I was sorry, and rededicate myself to following Him and to remaining aware of His presence and assistance?
- What must I ask of God to help me do better tomorrow?
- Did I approach the Word of God with the Fire of the Holy Spirit in my heart to experience REVELATION as an expression of God's love?
- Did I see God's CREATION, though fallen and groaning for restoration, with a sense of wonder and gratitude to keep alive the Holy Spirit of Love within my heart?
- Have I cooperated with God's Word and the inspirations of the Holy Spirit to allow grace to increase in me and to make me more like God in thought, word, and deed?
- Did I permit the Holy Spirit to make my work today radiant and fruitful?

The Memory:

- Do I form my memory with what is true and beautiful, both by words and by images?

- Do I ask the Lord to heal my memory, to drive forth from it what is unholy, to imbue it with what is holy, and to direct it under the power of the Holy Spirit?

The Intellect:

- Do I use right reason and deepen my understanding of natural truths through the light of revelation and the proper formation of my conscience?
- Do I lose perspective because of thoughts shaped and clouded by emotional wounds and traumatic memories?
- Do I work hard to strengthen my intellect both naturally (study/reading) and supernaturally (meditation, frequent sacramental participation, study of doctrine, reading spiritual works by saints or trustworthy writers)?

The Will:

- Do I fulfill my responsibilities faithfully in my station in life, particularly in my vocation and profession?
- Do I heed my formed conscience and the inspirations of the Holy Spirit with prompt loving obedience, trust, and thanksgiving?

Examination of conscience based on the Seven Gifts of the Holy Spirit:

- WISDOM: Did I make decisions based on carrying my Cross and on remaining a dwelling place for God Who has prepared a dwelling place for me in heaven?
- UNDERSTANDING: Did I not only say my prayers but also seek to understand them more?

- COUNSEL: Did I deliberately carry out good actions and consistently intend good actions rather than evil ones?
- FORTITUDE: Did I begin and follow through with the good and difficult responsibilities of my day?
- KNOWLEDGE: Did I seek through prayer, study, and good actions to know and love God today?
- PIETY: Did I show respect and reverence to God and to His Presence in others, especially to my parents and teachers? Am I sure to pray each day and to attend Mass on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation?
- FEAR OF THE LORD: Did I experience a sense of wonder about God, desiring to draw closer to Him and fearing doing anything that might separate me from Him?

Examination of conscience based on the Holy Family:

- The silence of Joseph: Did I listen at least twice as much as speaking today? Did I master my emotions and speak with proper thoughtfulness and charity? Did I remain peaceful in my heart today?
- The Immaculate Heart of Mary: Did I gaze upon others with a pure heart and direct my thoughts and eyes to what is pure and beautiful? Did my soul magnify the Lord in love and holiness, or did I darken my soul with malice and sin?
- The Sacred Heart of Jesus: Did I give myself to others in loving service or take from others and use others for my self-interest? Did I put what I want or what other people want first, or did I put what God the Father wants first?
